A massive thank you to everyone who joined us.

Swipe through to see a few of our favourite bits from the day.

We're incredibly grateful to De Montfort University for hosting us.

Special thanks to Simon Oldroyd for opening the conference and setting the tone for a brilliant day.

David Williams, Group Director of Strategy and Partnerships at LPT & NHFT, shared valuable insights into LPT's commitment to the 10-year Health Plan, and the exciting transition from analogue to digital.

Modestas Kavaliauskas, Senior Lead for Urgent & Emergency Mental Health at NHS England brought thoughtful perspectives on the importance of Opening up access to Crisis Mental Health Services.

He also chaired a session with Catherine Martin (LPT) & Christine Edwards (Northamptonshire Health NHS Foundation Trust). A vital conversation, and one we were proud to host.

Leighan Johnson (CAMHS, LPT) shared how HealthGuidance is helping increase reach and engagement within the service. Jo Goodman (Dorset Sexual Health) highlighted the impact of ChatHealth messaging in delivering sexual health advice, and Chantal Revans & Laura Pretty (Hounslow School Nursing) discussed how digital health contacts are helping capture meaningful insights from young people.

We got a sneak peek at the upcoming Neurodiversity website, thanks to Emma Stuart-Smith & Natalie Driver from LPT's Specialist Autism Team. Jean Ravenna joined us remotely to share how Snapchat is helping them reach young people in Kent and Leighan Johnson showed us how HealthForms are making a difference in tackling CAMHS waiting lists.
